

Professional Remodeler's 40 Under 40 Class of 2013

The 40 young remodeling professionals featured on the following pages represent the Class of 2013 in Professional Remodeler's "40 Under 40" franchise.

TIM GREGORSKI, EDITOR IN CHIEF | March 03, 2014

Mike Mahn
 President
 Mahn Custom Homes & Renovations, St. Louis

Education

- BA, Quincy University
- Masters of Science and Management, National Louis University

Accomplishments

- Oversees multi-million dollar firm specializing in historic renovations

- Increased company revenue from $300K to $2M over eight-year period; expanded company operations to include distributorship in 2009
- Recognized by City of Kirkwood, Mo., Landmarks Commission for historic renovation project; winner of Infill of Merit Award, 2009
- Winner, Webster Groves Historic Preservation Award, 2012

Extracurricular

- Volunteer, Rebuilding Together, St. Louis chapter
- Volunteer, "Extreme Home Makeover," St. Louis edition

Off the Clock

- Hobbies: cross-fit training, softball, and running marathons
- Favorite movie: "Caddyshack" and "Pride of the Yankees"
- Favorite food: steak
- Favorite book: "When Men Win Glory," the story of Pat Tillman

Secret Life

- Played college football for Quincy University's national championship team, 1993
- Bungee jumped with the band Warrant during Spring Break
- Father competed for a running back position on the Chicago Bears. He was beat out by Hall of Fame running back Walter Payton